About Jessica

Jessica Wong is a legal associate who has been practicing law since January 2021. Her primary area of practice is dispute resolution, including corporate and commercial disputes, land-related disputes, contractual disputes, insolvency and restructuring and so on. She is currently under the Dispute Resolution Department of HLP.

Jessica read law in Cardiff University, England and Wales and graduated with an LL.B (Hons) in 2019. She returned to Malaysia in September 2019 to pursue the Certificate of Legal Practice. She passed her Certificate of Legal Practice at first sitting in 2020. She then began her pupillage with Messrs Harold & Lam Partnership in February 2020 and was admitted to the Malaysian Bar in January 2021.

Jessica is familiar with the procedures and rules of court proceedings and arbitration proceeding. Jessica has experience in handling land-related disputes including land acquisition matters as well as construction-related disputes. She has also assisted in a number of winding up proceedings including application for liquidator's sanction, applying and/or defending Fortuna Injunction application, attending creditors meetings and filing of proof of debt forms.
